

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Dwayne Pecks and Edith Seuberling exchanged their wedding vows December 28, 1960, at Trinity Lutheran Church in Madison, South Dakota; and,

Whereas, The newlywed couple of 50 years ago has been replaced by two devoted partners who have shared life's beauty and sorrow, and have grown to love one another more because of their common journey; and,

Whereas, Dwayne and Edith are the parents of three children, Margie, Barb and John, and are blessed with two grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Through their lifelong dedication to the values of caring and sharing, Dwayne and Edith have helped make South Dakota a great place to live and work; and,

Whereas, Dwayne and Edith will celebrate their 50th Anniversary with all the good wishes, fanfare, and celebration such a milestone warrants, as family and friends gather to honor them with an open house at Nicky's Restaurant, in Madison on June 11, 2011; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota recognizes and commemorates the memorable occasions in the lives of the state's outstanding citizens:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 11, 2011, as in South Dakota, and I join with the honored couple's family and friends in wishing them continued health and happiness in a state that stands prouder today because of their contributions and commitment.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighth Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.

Dennis Daugaard
